IN HOC SIGNO VINCES.

A Word to Republicans.

The hope of the party lies in the reputation of a stalwart Republican press. The Republican who reads or otherwise helps to support a Democratic paper in the execution of any of his own party newspapers is untrue to the Republican cause.

Consistently adhered to by the National Republican League.

J. S. CLARKSON, President.

A. B. HUMPHREY, Secretary.

NEARLY every telegraph operator in Spain struck yesterday. They are dissatisfied with their wages and the hours of labor.

Now who says the McKinley bill isn't playing the devil generally.

"GROVER AND GRAY G. AND G. G. H. up and git!"—Frankfort Capital.

Nay, nay; not even "big G." will reach the Democratic case. It's now GROVER and STEVENSON. G. and S. G. in and sugar.

GROVER'S policy's English, ye know!

In Chicago AGNES HUNTINGTON's chorus girls were fined $2.50 each for wearing Cleveland badges on the stage, and the girls thereupon destroyed sixty costumes.

MRS. HUNTINGTON is consequently without her English supporting company.

THERE'S no sympathy in the Democratic names. A fellow who gets a little close aboard will have some trouble in shouting for his ticket. "Hurrah for CLEVELAND and STEVENSON!" will ward his tongue so that he will decelerate over into the next day before he gets it out.

THE "REV. R. W. CHRISTIAN," colored professional all-around dead-beat, bubbled up at the Chicago Convention, where he was introduced by our own JIM MCKENZIE. Having failed to "work" the Republicans, this reverend rascal will no doubt succeed in pulling the legs of our Democratic friends for the next few months.

THE Democratic editor who persists in denouncing the rulings of ex-Speaker REED discounts his own intelligence. Those rulings have been passed upon by the Supreme Court of the United States, and have received its seal of approval. Thus they have become "laws of the land," and as such every American citizen is bound to recognize and respect them.

THE facility with which the average modern Democrat acts grow is gauged solely by the capacity of his stomach. The thirteenth plank in the platform adopted by the Chicago Convention "renews the expression of appreciation of the patriotism of the soldiers and sailors of the United States in the war for its preservation." This was very complimentary to the chairman of the Convention, who was one of the fellows who were the gray.

Jacob Harvey's Neck Legally Broken in the Ohio Penitentiary.

The Crime For Which Harvey Died Was the Brutal Murder of Mr. Mearns—Three Others Fell by His Hand, According to His Own Story.

COLUMBUS, June 24.—Jacob Harvey, of Dayton, O., the murderer of Mr. Mearns, was executed by the gallows at the Ohio Penitentiary at 1 o'clock Friday morning.

The trap was sprung at 12:37 a. m., and Harvey was pronounced dead at the end of nine and one-half minutes.

The execution passed off quietly and in a manner completely satisfactory.

Although it was the first experience of the kind for the officials who conducted it, they are to be complimented upon the successful execution of the deed with the same nerve that characterized the commission of the crime, and it is doubtful whether he was fully penitent at the last moment.

The death warrant was read to him at 11:15 p. m., in the presence of the same individuals who witnessed his death. He listened to it without a word or flinch, and after it was finished listened attentively with bowed head to a touching prayer by Chaplain Trickett.

At the conclusion of the prayer he shook every vestige of the fear, bidding them good-by and the little crowd retired to await the hour of death.

There were no unusual scenes when the time came for executing the death sentence. The handful of spectators gathered quietly in the execution room, and after they had taken their places Harvey was led on to the trap. He walked with a firm step and stood quiet while the deputy warden's assistants bound his hands and feet, an operation that occupied two minutes. When all was ready Deputy Warden Playford asked: "Harvey, have you anything to say?"

"No, nothing at all. I am ready to go," came the crisp response from the condemned man. The cap was drawn, the noose adjusted, Deputy Warden Playford sprang the trap, a swish, a little gurgle and Harvey was in eternity. He died without a murmur or a struggle.

Dr. W. T. Rowles, the penitentiary physician, counted the pulse, and at the end of nine minutes and a half announced that the heart had stopped beating.

The body was cut down immediately and taken to the dead house. Undertaker Hart took charge of it and at noon Friday will ship it to the sister of the deceased, at New Carlisle. Harvey missed killing a Mexican some years ago. Harvey also told of killing another man in a quarrel over a game of cards in the south, also that he killed another woman in Texas, for being untrue to him when a cowboy there.

STEVENSON A BORN KENTUCKIAN.

CHICAGO, June 24.—Adlai Ewing Stevenson, of Bloomington, Ill., the Democratic candidate for vice president of the United States, was born in Christian county, Ky., October 3, 1835, and educated in the common schools of Kentucky and at Center college, Danville, Ky. He removed with his parents to Bloomington, Ill., in 1852, and began the study of law in Bloomington in 1857, being admitted to the bar in May, 1858. He held several offices in this state and served two terms in Congress. After the expiration of his last term as congressman Gen. Stevenson resumed the practice of law, and was a delegate to the Democratic national convention of 1884, which nominated Grover Cleveland for president. After the latter's election Stevenson was appointed first assistant postmaster general, and held that office during the entire Cleveland administration.

GROVER HEARS IT.

A Statement Through Gov. Russell Telling How He Feels Over It.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 24.—At 4:30 Thursday morning Mr. Cleveland, through Gov. Russell, sent from Gray Gables the following statement to the Press:

"I should certainly be chargeable with dense insensibility if I were not profoundly touched by this new proof of the confidence and trust of the great party to which I belong and whose mandates claim my loyal obedience. I am confident that our fellow countrymen are ready to receive with approval the principle of true democracy, and I can not but sympathize with the belief that to win success it is only necessary to persistently and honestly advocate these principles.

"Difference of opinion and judgment in democratic conventions are by no means unwholesome indication, but it is hardly conceivable, in view of the importance of our action to the country and to the party, that there should be anywhere among democrats any lack of harmonious and active effort to win in the campaign which opens before us. I have, therefore, no concern on that subject. It will certainly be my constant endeavor to deserve the support of every democrat."

Mr. Cleveland was terribly tired when the news of the total of the balloting reached him. He expressed his deep regret at the result, and said that he would be glad to be at the polls at 4 o'clock from Gray Gables. Mrs. Cleveland went to bed at 4 o'clock, and when the nominee of the democracy sought his chamber it was nearly 5 o'clock.

SA-GO-GE-WA-THA.

Buffalo's Monument to the Great Indian.

Red Jacket.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 24.—The statue of Red Jacket, the renowned chief, was unveiled in Forest Lawn cemetery. The exercises were very impressive, and consisted of prayer by Rev. Jesse Bearfoot, an Italian missionary, introductory remarks by President Hazard, of the Buffalo Historical society, the unveiling by Chief John Jacket, grandson of the famous chief, and ancient rituals rites pertinent to the occasion by Seneca and Cayuga chiefs. The statue is of bronze, measures five feet high and stands on a base 14 feet high. Upon the round column of the pedestal is engraved: Red Jacket, Sa-Go-Ge-Wa-Tha. He keeps them awake. The statue is an imposing figure. The left hand carries a tomahawk and the right is thrust forward in benediction. Upon his breast he wears the historic medal presented to him by Washington. The statue was erected by the Buffalo Historical society, and the sculptor was J. C. Hamilton, of Cleveland.

BOIES TO GROVER.

He Assures Cleveland of the Loyalty of Iowa Democrats.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 24.—A correspondent of the United Press interposed Grover Cleveland's name in the capital Thursday morning. He said: "I am pleased with the nomination because a majority of the democrats wanted it, and further because Mr. Cleveland is a good man. There is nothing about the nomination which is not satisfactory to me." Gov. Boies Thursday morning sent the following telegram:

"Grover Cleveland, Buzzard's Bay—Accept the hearty congratulations of all Iowa democrats, and be assured none will be more devoted to you than myself and those I am proud to number among my friends in this state."

(HONORABLE BOIES.)

NOT A WHEEL MOVES.

The Street Railroad Employees Strike at East Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., June 24.—All the employees of the East Cleveland Street Railroad in system strike Thursday morning. The East Cleveland men claim that the agreement which ended their strike of a few weeks ago does not operate satisfactorily. They presented a demand asking for more pay and longer hours and that no one not a member of the Knights of Labor be employed. The demand was refused, and the strike this morning is the result. The serving of the notice of injunction on the striking employees of the Broadway line was not completed until dark Wednesday night, and no attempt was made to operate cars.

NEW YORK WORLD'S OPINION.

NEW YORK, June 24.—The World says: Grover Cleveland must have the electoral vote of New York. The democracy of the country did not accept the dictatorial decree of the mid-water convention as the full, free and final expression of the democracy of New York. And in this it was right. Snap judgment can never be accepted as conclusive. The only objection against his nomination was that he could not carry New York. It was never urged that he is not honest, that he is not capable, that he is not faithful to the constitution. He meets the Jeffersonian test perfectly. But because some people like him and other people do not it was said that he could not carry New York. It is a libel on the Empire state."

SENATOR VOUCHES OUT OF DOUBT.

THESE HAVES, June 24.—Senator Voorhees, who arrived from Chicago, at 10 o'clock Wednesday night, sick, was able to go down to breakfast at his hotel Thursday morning, and is seeming much better. Grave apprehensions were felt Wednesday night as to his condition. The senator has telegraphed his friends his condition.

A RASH FOR GOLD.

KIRKMAN, Ariz., June 23.—A great gold rush has set in to the new mining camp in Mohave county, Ariz. Fifty miles north of here. Mining men who visited the new camp estimate the amount of ore on the surface worth not less than $1,000,000. The new town will be called Silverado.

DROWNED IN A CISTERN.

CINCINNATI, June 24.—Rex Dobbins, aged 43 years, an epileptic, living at 123 Oliver street, with his mother and sister, fell into the cistern and was drowned before help arrived.

WICE PRESIDENT.

Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinois, the Nominee.

Ex-Gov. Gray, Morse, and Mitchell, are All Knocked Out.

How Illinois Delegates to Accept Second Place—A Movement to Shift the Bowling Ball of State Politics.

Attended All National Conventions.

CHICAGO, June 24.—At 2:30 p. m., Chairman Wilson called the convention to order, and prayer was offered by the Rev. Thos. Green.

The chairman—President of the Convention, the next business before the convention will be the nomination of a candidate for the office of vice president of the United States. (Cheers)

The chair will now direct the clerk to call the roll of the states for nominations for that office. On motion of Gov. Porter, of Tennessee, nominating speakers were limited to five minutes each, and seconding speakers to three minutes each, and the roll was proceeded with.

When the clerk called Arkansas, Mr. Portney stated that Arkansas desired to waive the right to nominate in favor of Indiana. The chairman then introduced John H. Hines, of Indiana, who placed in nomination as Gov. Isaac P. Gray, of Indiana.

When Indiana was reached it yielded its place to Illinois, and Mr. Nicholas E. Worth, of Illinois, introduced the name of Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinois.

Consent and the seconded Gray's nomination. When Iowa was called there were cries of "Hail, Hail," which brought Hon. J. H. Shields, of Kansas, to his feet. "Iowa has had no candidate," he said.

When the roll called for Missouri, Mr. J. B. Kline responded to the call of Kentucky, seconded the nomination of Stevenson.

"I support Illinois," he said, "because I believe that to the victor belong the spoils. Great applause." Because he believed that there are honest and competent men in each of the democratic parties, and that the officers (cheers), and I warrant the assertion that, if he is placed in this high position, magnanimity and equanimity will stand out at his hands."

Edward P. Hill, president of the state association of Illinois, chief justice of the state.

After Mr. Flower, speaking for New York, said this state had no candidate to present.

North Carolina announced the nomination of Geo. Stevenson, of Illinois, in the person of Mr. Elise Kope, an appropriate for the second position upon the battlefield in defense of this indissoluble union of ours."

Mr. Cunningham, of Tennessee, the representative of the delegates from that state, seconded the nomination of Isaac P. Gray in a brief speech.

Texas also seconded the nomination of Stevenson, of Illinois.

Illinois seconded Geo. Stevenson, Washington that of Gray.

When the state of Wisconsin was called the veteran Gen. Edwin Bragg was called forward by his delegation to nominate John L. Mitchell, the millionaire railroad man and member of congress.

No response was heard from Wyoming, Alaska, Arizona, or the District of Columbia. To the call of New Mexico, J. S. Fisher seconded the nomination of Gray, and motioned and trust democracy to all this world," Isaac P. Gray, of Indiana.

California seconded Stevenson. Utah had no candidate to present, and the chairman inquired of the Territory delegates whether they had any. "Mr. W. F. Vandell, of Georgia, on behalf of the soldiers of the south seconded the nomination of George Stevenson, of Illinois."

Mr. J. H. King, of Alabama, also seconded the nomination of George Stevenson, of Illinois. (Applause)

The chairman—Centuries, four names have been presented to the convention as candidates for the nomination for the vice presidency. They are the names of the Hon. Isaac P. Gray, of Indiana; the Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinois; the name of Hon. Allen B. Morse, of Maine; and the name of John L. Mitchell, of Wisconsin. The secretary of the convention will now call the roll of states and receive the votes of each delegation.

As the ballot proceeded it was evident that the two strongest candidates were Gray and Stevenson, and the delegates of each state showed up with the highest number of votes from the state delegations.

The ballot before any change was made, resulted as follows:

- Alabama—Morse, 16
- Arizona—Gray, 16
- California—Gray, 16
- Colorado—Stevenson, 16
- Connecticut—Gray, 16
- Delaware—Gray, 16

WHY HE POST.

Anti-Cleveland Men Wreak Vengeance on Gov. Gray

Because the Indiana Delegates Cast Their Votes in Favor of Cleveland.

The Empire State and the Prairie State Clashed Hands Through the Intervention of Hon. Wm. M. Springer and Cased Stevenson's Nomination.

CHICAGO, June 24.—The democracy of the nation named the presidential candidate, but the democracy of the Empire State, of New York, to name the candidate for vice presidency. Illinois, the state whose forty-eight votes at the critical juncture turned the tide in favor of the nomination of Cleveland, and New York, the state in the face of whose protest the great popular leader was named, the president-elect, Cleveland, Thursday through the intervention of the Hon. William M. Springer, of Illinois, and the bonds of friendship between the two states.

Stabbed in the Store!

O. K. Finestock still alive but very low, and can't last long.

The terrible stab of Finestock at Henry Ott's store brings its natural results. Stock is going fast. Low prices lower the stock so rapidly that it can't last long, and those who have resorted to take advantage of this extraordinary opportunity should suit the action to the word, and buy at once.

This Stab Has Bled Profits to Death

And prices are now nothing but a skeleton which any y-pse can writhe with. Come and try it.

HENRY OTT, No. 11 East Second St., Mayville, Ky.
